Albert began his career as a Registered Representative in 1982 with Smith Barney, where he earned the title of Vice President/Investments and served the small business community. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, a long term Chester County resident and is active in local affairs.

Al's practice continues to focus on small business needs and issues involving asset protection, financial and retirement planning as well as succession and exit strategies.

We listen, pay attention to detail and are responsive.
