Gregg Millman has over fifteen years of corporate business experience and broad knowledge in personal and business planning. He joined Financial Advisors of Delaware Valley from ICI Americas where he provided marketing management and business and financial analysis. Gregg's primary focus is helping individuals, professionals and business owners develop and implement plans to achieve their long-term financial goals, relating specifically to:

- Investment Strategies and Wealth Management Services
- Personal, Business and Trust Owned Life Insurance
- College Education Planning
- Retirement Planning for Individuals
- Business Pension and Retirement Plans

Gregg uses his specialized investment knowledge in offering investments with a focus towards helping to preserve and grow wealth. Gregg's access to an open financial services network provides clients with freedom of choice of a wide range of investment and insurance products.

Gregg uses an interactive and educational approach to help his clients develop their financial priorities and goals. Clients receive objective, thoughtful advice and recommendations in a written action plan. Gregg is committed to helping his clients implement their plans with the highest level of personal service over the long term by building trusting relationships.

Gregg earned his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Michigan and his MBA in Finance from the University of Cincinnati.

When he is not meeting and working with his clients Gregg enjoys spending time with his wife Susan and their three children, playing golf and officiating high school lacrosse. Gregg and his family reside in Wilmington, Delaware.
