“I want to help people retire the way they want to. It can be said, the money saved for retirement is the most important money you will ever deal with, and it should be treated as such. My goal is to provide each client with the attention that they deserve both before and after they retire.”

- Kelly Kramarck

Kelly Kramarck brings over a decade of experience helping businesses compete in an ever-changing, complex global economy. Kelly’s past experience in the pharmaceutical and retirement planning industry, including five years with a major broker dealer, have positioned her to offer thoughtful guidance and direction to her clientele. She believes in a personal and customized approach that emphasizes direct involvement in all aspects of a retirement plan. Upon retirement, her focus shifts to a personalized distribution plan by helping you transition your retirement savings into your retirement paycheck. Kelly has worked with a variety of plan types and sizes throughout the Delaware Valley and Eastern shore.

Kelly completed the Certificate in Financial Planning curriculum through the Lerner College of Business and Economics, University of Delaware, and holds the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ designation. Kelly is a member of the Society of Financial Services Professionals (SFP) and Women in Insurance. She is a 1996 University of Delaware graduate, where she is active in the alumni association and is an advisor to her sorority. She is vice president of the Brader Elementary PTA.

When not helping companies and individuals structure retirement plans, she enjoys entertaining, sports, and outdoor activities such as boating, fishing, and playing golf. Kelly lives in Newark, Delaware with her husband Steve and their two children, Quinton and Jillian.
